September 28, 2022
Wednesday Afternoon
1:00 PM to 2:00 PM
via Zoom or Telephone

A lot of families in Canada would not want to send their parents and grandparents to Long Term care or Retirement Homes. If only they had the option of affordable and trusted care in their home. This week, we are exploring a hybrid and unique model of home care which could bring down the cost by 50% of living in your home.

OSSCO©'s Telelearning webinar connects you to Maya Nathani, the Founder & President of Universal Health Hub(UHH). Maya is a certified homeopath from India. She established the UHH in 2019 with one goal in mind - keeping our loved ones at home for as long as possible.

In this workshop we will explore:

1. Why should seniors move out of their own homes.
2. Challenges that seniors face at Long Term Care homes & Retirement.
3. How would you trust "any" caregiver come to your home and provide care to your loved ones
4. The 3 most important things to consider in home care.
